27 October, 1964.

Mrs. Jane Edger,
990 Pixley Road,
Rochester 24, New York.

Dear Mrs. Edger:--

I wish to state that I am very much embarrassed for the delay in replying to your wonderful letter--one so full of details on my ancestry. Please forgive me for this delay. I can say that I went on vacation two days after I had received your letter. My better half and myself left on Saturday to visit my sister-in-law who resides on Lakeshore Drive (or Road, in Hamburg, N. Y. From there we drove to New York City, where I spent much of my time in the New York Public Library. We returned home after being away for two weeks. Since my return, there has been the usual entering up on business and correspondence, in addition to digesting the many items gleaned in the Library. A number of times I have been about to settle down to reply to you, but before I could do so, something occurred to demand my attention. I am sure that you, the wife of a doctor, know all the possibilities and frustrations. So, I feel that I am forgiven.

Honestly, Mrs. Edger, the amount of information you forwarded to me regarding the Howe family is astounding. I feel sure that you must have spent a great deal of time on my behalf. Having been interested in genealogy for thirty, or more, years, I feel qualified in its own right. So, once again, may I say that your industry astounds me. More than that, you have not wasted your time on unrelated howes. I can say very definitely that my ancestor in James Howe, and that William was his brother. Of them and their relation to Randa I had an inkling, as I suggested in my inquiry. Likewise, I knew of the removal to Michigan and the death of my ancestor there. Your notes have filled in a good many details. You have likewise revealed to me the children of my Uncle William. Again, my thanks.

There is, however, the uncertainty as to surname of these two brothers. As I may have indicated, there is a suspicion that they were the children of a first marriage, and that they took the surname of their step-father when their mother re-married. The mother, Elizabeth Follows, married, first, Eliza Rice in 1813. Some years later she became the wife of George Howe, and had a second family. The children of the first marriage, James L., William and Peggy, were known as Howe. In this regard, your notes offered a possible solution of this problem, namely the naturalization records. This is not long, I made inquiry as to the whereabouts of such records, but I could discover no information as to the whereabouts of them. Possibly you might have a clue as to where these can be found. If so, I am in the market for any clue.

I note your suspicion that I might be related to the Dies Family. I am not. Over the years I gradually became in the Loylists of this part of Ontario. One thing led to another, with the result that I have created files on more than eight hundred Loyalist families. This, together with my interest in my ancestry, has been a lifelong hobby. And that is how I happened to have collected all those notes on the Dies family, one which left this area a century and a half ago.

Again, my sincere thanks for everything, and let me say that I admire your typewriting.

Sincerely,

990 Pixley Road

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Small amount
Even if I were not, from first hand experience, aware of the ~~lack~~ of free time a doctor has available to him, I would be grateful to you for taking the time to check records and then copy the valuable information you sent me re: the Dies ancestors of my husband...and the bonus of Goelet "clues" which I am dying to pursue !! I am curious to know whether you, too, are related to the Dies family or whether you recognized the family from searching old records of your area.

Although Dr. Widger is not a genealogist (and I am strictly one in an amateur sense), he is always interested and encourages me to do whatever I can. He, too was greatly impressed by your kindness in giving your time on Sunday, Sept. 13th to write so much to me, and as a doctor's wife, I should like to thank your understanding wife, also. Our first thought was, "Is there a way in which we could show our appreciation by saving you some research?". So when I found that we might check the Nunda Census for 1870, I was delighted. As soon as I could, I went to our Local History room of the Rochester Public Library and found they did have the Nunda Census. Much to my chagrin, however, the writing was so light that it was practically invisible. I went through it however, feeling that I could at least recognize the pattern made by the sur name, "Howe", but felt I could not be sure, even of that. So you can imagine how badly I felt.

This past Tuesday I thought that as soon as the children left for school, I would take off for Geneseo, the County Seat of Livingston Co., and check to see if the original Census were available and if so, hope I could read it. It was... and I delightedly went through Nunda.....no Howes!!! Then I decided to check Deeds and thus found that men of the same names owned land in Portage and West Sparta. There were the <sup>two</sup> ~~three~~ Census records available in the County Clerks office, so I knew I must not overlook them each as a possible source of information....yet I did wish I knew which brother was of special interest and whether for research into previous or subsequent generations. I honestly feel that I looked into every source available to me, because I know I always hope

* Also had 1855, 60, 65 but they were too early to be as thorough as possible in my own research so it will not be necessary to make another trip to check on some overlooked detail.

After doing all I thought I could in the Court House... (disappointed not to find some records in the Surrogate's office), I hurried to the County Historian's office, which I had learned was in the Museum, and was glad to find they did have the 1880 Census on Microfilm. By the way, she said the 1890 Census was destroyed by fire and the 1900 had not been made public yet. She also told me they had the old Nunda News for many years. I was then so late... the time evaporated as it always does and I knew I must hurry back to at least reach home before our youngest returned from school. But I found James in Portage and a son of William in Ossian and was about to give up on William when I decided to hurry through Sparta and West Sparta and found him, copied the information, got the names of the two Historians listed on another sheet, that might be able to check Cemetery or Church records for you, and hurried home. Now my only hope is that out of this collection of data you will be able to either find what you are seeking, or that a clue for further research will leap out at you!! I also always kept the name Powley in mind, but nowhere except in those two deeds did I find any Powleys.

Had hoped to get this information right off to you, thinking it might have some thing in it that would cause you to send a different inquiry into Cousin Huntin'. However I had not been home long, when we got a phone call from Buffalo which sort of changed our plans. My parents, both in their 86th year, are the most remarkable pair. Very independent and active, dividing their time between Florida, the Adirondacks and Buffalo, spending most weekends in the spring and fall with us in Rochester. My father has had some slight trouble with arterial spasms and apparently had what he thought was a stroke but turned out to be another severe spasm. He is very devoted to my husband and likes Strong Memorial Hospital, so he wanted to be here if he had to be hospitalized. We drove to Buffalo and brought them back, my father to be admitted to Strong for some tests, GI Series etc. and my Mother to stay with us. So she and I have been visiting him at least twice a day. Now he is here with us and they will stay a few more days to make sure everything is under control. We are so glad to be able to help them. It does, however mean that my time is divided more than usual and so I just got to getting this off to you. I am not a good typist... very pokey... but I have tried to be accurate in copying my notes. I sincerely hope I have helped you and just let me know if this material suggests any other way in which I can help. It makes me feel better if I can do some little thing to help repay you for all your help. Sincerely - Jane

now I'm going to see if I can possibly get some inquiries in to Cousin Hunter. You may be sure I'll add the Golet family.

Page 18 Though it may not be of interest to you, I noted that there was an Orson Howe, grandson, living in Ossian in the home of Fordham Wyman and wife Ellen, ages 59 and 52 (Ellen b. Pa.) In the same home were Andrew, 22; Boyd, 13; and Jennie, 15: sons and daughter of Fordham and Ellen Wyman. You will note that on the 1875 census of Ossian, Orson was the 6 mo. old son of James W. and "Marthy" How and on a deed later you will note that James W. and Mary E. How his wife are mentioned as heirs at law of William Howe, deceased ...dated Apr. 11, 1890. I would guess that Marthy was a dau. of the Wyman and she died before the 1880 census and probably the Mary E. of the deed was wife #2 of James W. Howe. Not knowing what members of the Howe family are of main interest to you I felt I should not overlook this.

* This is an error - probably meant to be 58

* Note: this child was living with them as the 3 and 3/4 yr. old grandson on the 1875 census. They had a son John M. Howe, mentioned in the same deed as referred to above. This John M. did not appear on either the 1870 or 1875 census so I think he may have been older and the father of Harry, who could either be visiting or perhaps living with his grand parents.

Please note that 1870 census lists both James R. and William. Howe's parents as "of Foreign Birth"

Note the 1880 Census for James stating father + mother born in N.Y. state.

However for William it says
father N.Y. and m.b. Canada

Also note my information about William H. Howe son of James
R. It looked as though Canada was written first in each of 3 places and N.Y.
written over but I could not be sure.

We know some census taken were not too accurate and also people didn't always give them the facts - as a child in the family gave the information. Note also that on the 1875 census of James' family - the children's place of birth is different from the 1870 census. That is the maddening thing!

* Special attention might be given the fact that in 1875 the census tells us James + ~~Robert~~ William were naturalized. Those records should give much genealogical information shouldn't they?

1871	Wm. Howe	James Coffee	W. Sparta 84	301

This is probably the other Howe you mentioned for it said both parties lived in Mount Morris and the William Howe who seems to fit better as a brother of James R. was living in Ossian at this time according to the 1875 census. However I noted the deed because this could be William's son, the 21 year old with wife Lizzie on the 1870 Census, for I did not see his name on the other census lists for Portage or Ossian or West Sparta.

NOTE I believe these were the only deeds directly related to the brothers, James R. and William Howe (How) recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Livingston County, New York. There probably are other deeds for the sons of William but I did check any William H. Howe deeds.

I also checked the General Index in the Surrogate's office and the only will (probate or administration record) was for a/Whthhbp Winslow How whom I had noted on the Portage Census for 1875, pg. 20 as a 74 year old farmer, native, born in Cayuga County, with R. in the column headed, "Over 21 and not able to read or write". The only other member of his family was his wife, D.B. How, 63, born Madison County. Looking at the petition for probate, I was sure this Winslow How was not, at least not closely, related to the brothers, James and William. I did, however wish to mention any names that might possibly be of interest to you..for I, myself always think that sometimes one might put another piece in the jig saw puzzle and find need to remember some bit of heretofore seemingly unrelated information.

However I assume that both William Howe and James R. Howe died in their respective towns and cemetery or gravestone or church records might be available. I obtained the names of two Historians from the County Historian when checking the 1880 Census Microfilm in the museum.

Howe not found.

James Reuben had two sisters. One married a Haycock and the other was also married. Was one named Peggy? Mother thinks they lived near Whitby, this being the reason why the Howes moved there.

His first wife, Maria Walker died in childbirth at the age of 42.

Thinks that James Reuben had an uncle Reuben.

Just before they moved to Whitby there were twins born (Adelaide and Adeline?). One died in a few days. A short time later they moved to Whitby and the second child died on the way in the house of some very kind people.

They stayed only a short time in Whitby and came back to Bellrock living directly south from Wellington Brooks' house on a small farm.

In 1863 mother's family moved to Fairhaven. It was shortly before this that James Reuben, <sup>the</sup> Benns and Sid. Walroth moved to States (Fairhaven).

Uncle James Walker ran the Five Mile House in 1867.

Percys moved back to Canada April 1st, 1867. Uncle Eugene was then 6 weeks of age.

When Uncle Eugene was born Mother was kept by grandfather James Reuben while his second wife, Nancy Walker Powley was with grandma Percy. James Reuben then lived half way up the hill ~~East~~ of the northern outskirts of Fairhaven.

Grandma Howe died between 1862 and 1867 at Fairhaven. (1864, July 22)

Grandpa Howe and Nancy lived with Will Powley at Nunda, Livingston Co., N. Y. James Reuben died there. (No)

Grandma Howe born about 1820-25. She was 42 at her death. The baby born then was Emma or Amy. She had a cleft palate (No roof in mouth) and wasn't bright. She was taken care of by Nancy Powley Howe who was mean to both her and to Grandpa.

When Mother was 7 years old James Reuben was brought to Bellrock by Henry Jeffrey. This was his last trip to Canada. (1869?)

Sid. Morey's mother was a sister of James Reuben. There was also a Reuben Morey.

Riddells of Colebrooke are related to Grandma Percy.

James Howe Family.

Howe

Supplied by Henry Jeffrey.
May 8, 1930.

James Howe moved from Sydenham to Bellrock when his son, Matthew, was 10 years of age.

He removed to Fairhaven in 1861.

He removed to Nunda the second wednesday in March, 1869, by Henry Jeffrey, the journey taking 3 days.

This removal was influenced by the inducements of his brother, Will, who lived at Nunda. There he bought a sidehill property which was no good. It had two houses, in one of which his brother Will lived, and a decayed brewery.

He removed from Nunda to Gladwin, Mich., in 1879 to live with his wife's son, Will Powley who assumed the name of Howe. This farm was in Gladwin County 8 miles from Gladwin.

He died in Gladwin in 1892. His wife, Nancy, died in 1894. His first wife, Maria, had died in July, 1864 and he married Nancy about 1864-6.

James Howe was fifty when Maria Howe died.

Almeda Howe Benn was born in March, 1841.

The Howes were all dark but James. His brother(Will?) was very dark. This brother had six sons(one Jim) and they lived at Nunda.

This computation would show James Howe to have been born in 1814; married about 1840; first wife died in July, 1862; remarried 1864-6; died 1894

Jim Lee's wife's mother, Mrs. Pressley, who later married Smith, and later Allport, says that James R. Howe's right name was Rice, and was raised by a family named Howe.

Harriet Howe Percy says that this is not true.

James R. Howe came hunting and fishing from Conn. and married and stayed in Ont.

Samuel Howe — no date of his birth is given, but he was born in Providence, Rhode Island. Samuel had two brothers, Weede and Elias who was the perfecter of the sewing machine. Elias was about seventy-five years old when he made over the machine which had been made originally to sew sail cloth and was very large and clumsy. The early machine was not practical for household use, but he reduced it so it could be used by the housewife. Elias was very poor because he spent so much on this machine, but he lived long enough to make good money on his invention and was a very old man when he died.

Samuel Howe was an architect and contractor. He built the Government Buildings in Toronto, Canada. After completing these buildings he took his money, all in silver, in nail kegs on a sailboat up the St. Lawrence River to ~~Rochester~~ Charlotte, New York and thence to Rochester, N.Y. He bought a two hundred acre farm where the Rochester Court House now stands. He built the first good house in Rochester. He lost this tract of land three faulty deeds.

His two sons, Fred and Harry brought suit to recover the land, but title was defective and the Court of Chancery had prior claim.

After losing his property in New York State he went to Prince Edward County and a little later went to Belleville, Ont., and built the first brick house in Belleville.

He married Jane Denike, who was born on Staten Island of English parents, but no dates for her are available. To this union there were six children born to wit:—

Frederick -- married Mrs. Late Percy

Lucy Ann -- married Samuel Baker

Harry -- married Emma Moore

Jane -- married Richard Trumppour.

Martha Weede -- married Alexandra McWilliams Margach.

Sarah -- married Nick Ketcherson, he was very wealthy and she was very fleshy.

Lucy Ann Howe Baker lived about fifty miles from Napanok and eighteen miles north of Belleville. They raised five children as if they were their own, educated and set them up in business. They had two children of their own, but the little boy when six years old fell thru a hole in a saw mill floor and was killed. As they were Quakers, they buried this child in a Quaker burying ground thirty miles away.

The other child was a beautiful daughter who died when she was seventeen years old.

Uncle Samuel Baker died of cancer of the stomach.

Howe<sub>4</sub>

Danny Howe brought me a parrot from Honduras in 1889, and his wife Emma was the lady that I had a wedding for in 1906 in my father's home at 1832 East 82nd Street in Cleveland.

Jane married Richard Thompson and settled in Hungerford Township, Hastings County.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

The Secretary of State's index to depositions of resident aliens intending to become citizens, 1825-1906 does not include the name of either William or James Reuben Howe.

It is suggested you write to the clerks of Cayuga and Livingston counties, at Auburn and Geneseo, N.Y. respectively with regard to such relative naturalization papers as may be on file.

What's a disc? How can it rupture?
Why can't I straighten my back?

Dear Doctor:

If your low back patients are like most, I guess you don't always find it easy to explain the causes of their miseries. How a man can "throw his back out" by merely picking a newspaper off the floor is hard for him to comprehend.

In an attempt to assist your communication with some of these patients we have prepared the enclosed unit. This model of a spinal segment shows the relationship of the intervertebral discs and surrounding musculature to the spinal structure. As such, we think you might find it helpful in pointing out the factors involved in pain and spasm.

We also hope this little unit will help to remind you how Soma can be an effective answer for many low back problems. Analgesic, muscle relaxant Soma will ease pain and spasm and thus enhance conservative therapy. Soma usually gets them mobile sooner.

I trust that Soma and the spinal segment will serve you well.

Sincerely,

H. R. Horner.

by

Harriet Howe Percy.

James R. Howe was not 80 years of age when he died in 1864 or 7. He was born in Canada, believed to be near Bath. Died in Pennsylvania. He went there because his elder brother, William, lived there.

Howes came from Vermont.

Howes lived 4 miles east of Bath and Westbrook in Powley House (stone) on the north side of York Road. Grandma was born in that house. Moved then to Loughborough (Grant Place) before Grandma can remember. She went to Bangall School. When about nine years of age they moved to Whitby and stayed one year, and then back to Bath. Stayed there about two years and moved to Bellrock. Grandma was married in 1860 and went to Fairhaven in the fall of 1863. The old folks (James Reuben and wife) went there in the following Spring. Grandma lived there 4 years and returned to Bellrock. Greadgrandma died in Fairhaven July 21 1864 (Maria Walker Howe). She gave birth to a baby on July 19th and died three days later. James Reuben then married Nancy Walker Powley and went to Pennsylvania. Joseph Percy lived in Bellrock, then went to Sanford Card farm, and mother was married from there in 1884.

James R. Howe had sisters or aunts. One of them married a Haycock. One was Peggy (?). It is believed that he moved to Whitby to be near one of these.

Matthew J. Howe
says in 1923

~~James Reuben was born in Scotland and came to Canada from there.
Thinks James died about 73 years ago~~

His grandfather (James Reuben's father) was born in Scotland and came to Canada from there. He died about 73 years ago (ie 1850), and thought that he (Matt.) was 10 years old at the time.

PUBLIC ARCHIVES OF CANADA.

To the Right Honorable Guy Lord Dorchester Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Quebec &c.

The humble petition of Samuel Adams Simpson Jenne & Saml. Ross in behalf of themselves and associates to the number of more than one hundred Refugees in and about Sorel and places adjacent most humbly sheweth.

That your Lordship's Petitioners during the late unhappy dissentions in America by reason of their allegiance to the British Government and by complying with the Proclamations issued by his Majesty's General have lost their whole Estates on which they depended for the support of themselves and families (many have suffered punishment and corporal punishment others have been executed several have also perished in making their escape and now many of those which have remained) are become to the greatest distress.

That in the year 1785 your petitioners presented a petition to Lieut. Governor Hamilton for a tract of land between Missisquoi Bay and the South branch of the River Yamaska or some other vacant lands adjacent that we may become not only capable of supporting themselves and families but render our selves serviceable to this Province by cultivating and settling those tracts of wilderness and enlarging his Majesty's settlements in this Province his honor the Lieut. Governor informed your Lordship's petitioners that he was very sorry it was not in his power to grant any lands at that time, but as instructions were shortly expected from England advised your Petitioners that as soon as these instructions should arrive they might have an answer.

Wherefore your Lordship's petitioners humbly pray for a grant of lands, free of all Seigniories and subject to no other incumbrance than they were formerly possessed of, and adequate to our numbers and different circumstances as your petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray both for and in behalf of themselves and associates

Foley be permitted to purchase the whole lot. The Committee consider the forfeiture of the original location properly after a lapse of 18 years without settlement and that Thos. Joseph Howe, eminent Canadian statesman, born at Halifax, N.S. Dec. 13, 1804. His father was John Howe, who was descended from one of four brothers who came from the southern part of England to the New England States in the 17th century. John Howe was the only one of the family in New England to remain loyal at the time of the revolution.

Howe, Hon. Joseph.--The late Hon. Mr. Howe was born at the North-West Arm, about two miles from Halifax, in December, 1805. His father was John Howe, a U. E. loyalist, who was at one time a printer in Boston, but who subsequently became a writer for the newspapers. It may here be said that the word U. E. loyalist passes current in all parts of Canada as an equivalent for aristocrat, our people taking, it would seem, almost for granted that all those who gathered up their movables, after the colonies had effected their independence, were high society gentlemen, and in some way personal friends, if not blood relations, of the Crown. The truth of the matter is that the U. E. loyalists comprised all sorts of people, unlettered yeomen, eleemosynary shoemakers, printers, blacksmiths, weavers, spinners, and a few handfuls of gentlemen who had a little blue china, and whose ancestors came out in the Mayflower. When these loyalists settled in the loyal provinces that now form Canada, the Crown could not be so ingrateful as to let them go unrecompensed for the sacrifices they had made at the dictates of their devotion; for it is not to be disputed that a number of the refugees really did make sacrifices to their loyalty. For hundreds, however, the war might be regarded as a perfect god-send. They left their empty shoe-making stalls, and were presented with a large tract of land in Ontario, Nova Scotia, or New Brunswick, in consideration of their "devotion." But to return to Joseph Howe. He went to school in an irregular fashion in Halifax, etc., etc.

The Wayside Inn--Longfellow.

"But first the Landlord will I trace:
Grave in his aspect and attire,
A man of ancient pedigree,
A Justice of the Peace was he,
Known in all Sudbury as "The Squire."
Proud was he of his name and race,
Of old Sir William and Sir Hugh,
Anax in the parlor, full in view,
His Coat of Arms, well framed and glazed,

Upon the wall in colors blazed,
 He beareth gules upon his shield
 With three wolf's heads, and for the crest
 A wyvern part-per-pale addressed
 Upon a helmet barred; below,
 The scroll reads, "By the name of Howe,"
 And over this, no longer bright,
 Though glimmering with a latent light,
 Was hung the sword his grandsire bore
 In the rebellious days of yore,
 Down there at Concord in the fight."

The Right Rev. M. A. DeWolfe Howe, D.D., L.L.D., Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, had a most interesting seal, since from the description of the arms in Longfellow's "Wayside Inn" some of its features are taken. It is known that the arms thus described hung for one hundred and fifty years in an old inn at Sudbury which was owned by a man "by the name of Howe."

History of Stanstead County, P.Q., by B.F. Hubbard, 1874.

Squire Howe.

Was among the early settlers of Barnston, Stanstead Co., P.Q. His father, Caleb Howe, had settled near Fort Dummer, now Dummerston, Vt. That country was then new, and after the opening of the French War, the inhabitants were subject to frequent depredations from the Indians. Such was the insecurity of the place that the women and children were kept in the Fort--the men cultivating the meadows in the daytime with their muskets by their side, and prepared to retreat into the Fort on the appearance of the Indians. Mr. Howe and two of his neighbors were surprised by an ambuscade of the Indians, while hoeing corn, and killed on the spot, and the Indians succeeded, by stratagem, in getting into the Fort, the women and children falling an easy prey. Among their captives were Mrs. Howe and her children. They were marched off through the wilderness to Lake Champlain, whence they were taken to Montreal, where after a delay of some months, they were ransomed and suffered to return home, after having passed through many hardships and sufferings. Squire Howe was four years old when the family were taken by the Indians. The Indian who claimed him as his property seemed to cherish a feeling of peculiar spite and malignity towards him during the whole of their journey. Often when the little fellow sunk down from fatigue or exhaustion he would rouse him by striking him on the head with the handle of his hatchet. The marks of this savage brutality were plainly to be seen during the remainder of his life. In his early youth the compiler examined the head of Mr. Howe who was then an old man, and long and deeply indented scars were distinctly felt and seen. He settled in Barnston in 1804. Several of his descendants reside in that town.

Squire Howe, son of Caleb Howe and Jemima Howe, was born at Dummerston, Vt., Nov. 2, 1752. He married Phoebe Paine, born Jan. 13, 1760. They settled on No. 9, 5th Range of Barnston in 1804. He died in 1834. She died in 1849.
